

What Are Action Communities?

In response to suggestions from past Arizona Town Hall participants, we're creating Action Communities on Town Hall topics to better coordinate the efforts and resources of organizations and individuals throughout the state. Our goal is to accelerate the implementation of Town Hall recommendations and create workable solutions.

How Do I Get There, and What Do I Do Then?

On the web, start by going to <http://actioncommunities.org>

Since the Action Communities space is a private area for Arizona Town Hall participants, members, and others interested in the topic, the first time you visit, you'll need to register.

- Click Register for an Account on the right side of the page.
- Fill out the quick form. Be sure to write down the name and password you choose, as you'll need these every time you come to Action Communities. Name and password are case sensitive.
- Click Register!

An Arizona Town Hall coordinator will receive your registration via e-mail, activate your account, and let you know that you're registered. You can then come back to <http://actioncommunities.org> and enter your chosen username and password on the left side of the screen to come in.

What's on the Action Communities Web Site?

Links at the top of the web site's pages will take you to:

- Home Page, where you can learn more about the Action Communities web site.
- Discussion Forum, where you can carry on conversations by posting and responding to messages from other Town Hall participants and the larger community.
- Blog, where current reflections, ideas, news, and events are posted. Please send your blog entries to suzanne@aztownhall.org.
- Resources, a growing collection of useful resources and events such as meetings and conferences. Please send calendar events to suzanne@aztownhall.org.

This is YOUR community!

Our success in moving conversations and recommendations forward depends on your active involvement. Our 2009 budget did not include Action Communities funding, but so many past Town Hall participants are eager for enhanced collaborative opportunities that we're launching the web site on a shoestring. Please visit the community often, become a Sponsor if you're able, and help us find funding sources. Sponsors will be acknowledged on the Home Page.
