

Lisa A. Atkins was appointed by Governor Ducey to serve as the 21st Commissioner of the Arizona State Land Department on June 15, 2015.

As an Arizona native, Lisa combines a well-rounded understanding of the State with more than 40 years of experience in federal and State legislative and policy arenas, focusing on land, water and military issues. Prior to joining the Governor's Cabinet, Lisa served for more than twenty years as Chief of Staff to Congressman Bob Stump (R-AZ-3), and Vice President Public Policy, for Greater Phoenix Leadership, for twelve years.

Lisa is well respected in the Arizona community for her involvement in a variety of organizations. Among her current activities associated with her duties as State Land Commissioner, Lisa serves as the Commissioner of the State's Natural Resource Conservation Districts and as the State Cartographer. Lisa also serves as the Co-Chair of the Governor's Military Affairs Commission, as a member of the State Parks Board, the Oil and Gas Conservation Commission, the Arizona State Board on Geographic and Historic Names and the Governor's Water Augmentation Council.

Last year, she was honored with the Phoenix Business Journal's 2018 Outstanding Women in Business' Lifetime Achievement Award.
