

Reetika Dhawan

Vice President, Workforce and CTE, Arizona Western College

Reetika Dhawan is an accomplished individual with a diverse background in education. Holding both Master's degrees in Physics and Applied Math, she is currently seeking her doctorate in Instructional Design. As vice president of Workforce and CTE at Arizona Western College, her current role has given her many unique opportunities to engage in transformative leadership. She has also served on numerous boards, receiving multiple accolades for teaching and administration, including the Vice President Innovation Award, Teacher of the Year, Heart of Yuma Leadership Award, etc. Reetika is passionate about education and making a difference in the lives of others.

